TURNERS' FIELD DAY.

TURNERS' FIELD DAY.

The Wheeling Turners are making great preparations for their annual field day, which will be held at the state fair grounds, Thursday, Auguet 4. An interesting programme of athletic events has been arranged, and there will be dancing and other social features. The Steubenville and Wheeling Turners will play a game of basket ball, and as last year's contest ended in a tie, this one will be for blood. The Turners have been hoodood in the past by rain every

DRASTIC ACTION

Taken last Night by the Reunion Committees in Effort

TO SECURE THE CENT A MILE

RATE FOR SEPTEMBER'S BIG UN-DERTAKING-A TEN DAYS' UL-TIMATUM SERVED UPON THE TRUNK LINE ASSOCIATION-IF THE DESIRED CONCESSION IS NOT HAD BEFORE JULY 18 THE REUNION IS OFF-STORY OF LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

Wheeling is a community whose citizens have on many occasions shown qualities of patience and long-suffering especially in their dealings with railroads, but just now this old town has her "dander" up, and, following in the footsteps of such a distinguished per-sonage as President McKinley, an utilmatum has been served upon the Trunk Line Association, which is in effect that in the event of that body again declin ing to concede the cent a mile rate for the reunion of the Army of West Virginia, the reunion is declared off and the railroads get nothing for their

This action was taken at a well attended meeting of the reunion executive, finance and transportation committees, held last evening in the rooms of the chamber of commerce. Among those present were Chairman C. J. Rawling, of the executive committee President Hullihen Quarrier, chamber of commerce; Chairman George Wise, of the finance committee; Secretary Howard Hazlet, of the cham-ber of commerce, and the following high privates of the three committees: Messrs. Stalnaker, Culbertson, Seamon, Mesers, Stainaker, Chibertson, Seamon, Riheidafer, Whitaker and Archer.

Chairman Rawling presided, and in opening the meeting gave a sketch of the negotiations with the railroads that have culminated in the present muddle the particulars of which are familiar to the particulars of which are familiar to the public, Soon after the transporta-tion committee was named, it had en-tered into negotiations with the Wheel-ing Passenger Committee, which rec-ommended to the Central Passenger Committee (west of the Ohio) and the Joint Traffic Association (east of the Ohio) that a rate of one cent a mile be given for the Wheeling reunion. These boards in turn passed the matter up to given for the Wheeling reunion. These boards in turn passed the matter up to the Trunk Line Association, which considered the matter recently at a meeting in New York. When Captain Rawling learned indirectly that the association had decided to grant only the one fare round trip rate, he was surprised and dismayed, and at once took up the matter with the officers of the Baltimore & Ohlo road. The latter passed his communication up to the Baltimore & Ohlo road. The latter passed his communication up to the Trunk Line body and the case was reformed, with the result that the former action was reaffirmed, the information coming to Captain Rawling in the following letter from the association's secretary: $3.00

Mr. C. J. Rawlings, Wheeling, W. Va. Mr. C. J. Rawings, Wheeling, W. Va.
DEAR SIR:—Your letter of the 22d insta to Baltimore & Ohio ruliroad, saking reconsideration of action in respect to special fares for the above occasion, to the end that one cent a mile be authorized, was considered by the committee yesterday, but it was agreed that no greater concession than one fare for the round trip, as previously advised, could consistently be authorized.

E.P. FLEMING, Secretary.

When this was received, Captain Rawling was in the midst of correspondence with President Powell, of the Army of West Virginia, and had asked his opinion as to the advisability of holding the reunion in the event of the lower railroad rate not being secured. President Powell had responded, stating that he was too far from the section from which the bulk of the reunion attendance would come to hazard an opinion, but he felt sure that Captain Rawling and the Wheeling committees would look to the best interests of the Society's president, stating that the unanimous sentiment here was that the reunion ought to be declared off if the railroads persisted in their discrimination against the Army of West Virginia and the city of Wheeling. President Powell coincided in this view, but expressed the hope that the lower rate would be secured, and added that he believed public affairs would reach such a condition in September that the success of the reunion would be assured.

Continuing, Captain Rawling cited the action of the Trunk Line people in extending the cent a mile rate to the Cincinnati national G. A. R. encampment and even to the Ohlo state G. A. R. meeting in Mount Vernon, both gatherlands on the face of this discrimination he saw no prospect of a large play a game of basket ball, and as last year's contest ended in a tie, this one will be for blood. The Turners have been hoodood in the past by rain every time they gave an out door affair, and they are hoping that the rain man will go to the Philippines, or some other far away place on this occasion.

BODIES NOT RECOVERED.

A diligent search was made yesterday for the bodies of Mike Rabosky and John Pootsian, the Benwood bors drowned Thursday afternoon near the Haitmore & Ohlo bridge pier, but the search was not successful. They sank in a deep hole at the pier, probably eighteen feet deep, and powder and dynamite were used extensively, while divers went to the bottom, but no traces of the bodies could be found. They many have been carried down stream. The mother of one of the boys was almost frantic and was restrained with difficulty from jumping into the water.

HIVES are a terrible torture to the little folks, and to some older ones. Doan's Ointment never fails. Instant relief, permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents, this action is now given the approval of the executive, finance and transportation committees in charge of the reunion ar-

These resolutions will be sent to the Trunk Line Association, the Joint Traffic Association, the Central Passenger Committee, and other railroad organizations, and it is hoped that they will con-tions, and it is hoped that they will contribute to bringing the railroaders to their senses. If they do not accomplish this, the reunion is off.

Before adjournment, Chairman Rawling brought up the matter of grounds for the reunion. Three sites had been suggested: The Bridge park (old Camp Carille), the state fair grounds and the base bail park, all on the Island. The first and list are on the street car line, and before the reunion dates the state fair grounds will have street car accommodations. The captain told of the advantages of each site, and seemed inclined to favor Camp Carille. However, he asked an expression of opinion from the committees. On motion of Mg. Quarrier, the matter was left to the desisted of Carille Bestler. Quarrier, the matter was left to the decision of Captain Rawling.

THE REUNION RATE

Of Transportation-A High Railroad Official's Statement.

The Intelligencer learned last night, after the meeting of the reunion commilitees, that some of the railroads are kicking against the action of the Trunk Line association in declining to give a lower rate than one fare for the round trip for the Wheeling reunion. This oftrip for the Wheeling reunion. This official will attend the meeting of the Central Passenger Committee to be held at Chicago on next Wednesday, and will endeavor to exert enough influence to have the action of the Trunk Line Association reconsidered again. This official believes that the cent a mile rate will be the result of last night's decided action by the reunion committees.
He admits that Wheeling is being discriminated against, and says the action of the association cannot be defended.

are Suggested for the Four House of Delegates Nominations to be Made by the Ohio County Democratic Convention This Asternoon,

This afternoon at 2 o'clock in the hamber of the second branch of council, city building, the nominating convention of the Ohio county Democracy will be held. Each district will be represented by five delegates, who were chosen at the county primary election last Satur-day. The business of the convention is to name four candidates for house of delegates and select Ohio county's sensdelegates and select Ohio county's sena-torial conferees.

Several names have been suggested for house of delegates, including Fidelius Riester, James W. Ewing, Joseph Hand-ian, C. A. Schaefer, Fred Strauser and J. R. Hissom, of Wheeling; Dr. William Bates, of Richland district, and D. M. Thornburg, of Triadelphia district.

WANT AN INCREASE.

Day Men at Riverside Pinte Hill will Ask for More Wages, and Meet for that Pur-pose Sanday Afternoon.

At a meeting of the day men of th Riverside plate mill, to-morrow after-neon, it is likely that a committee will appointed to ask the managemen for an increase of wages. No other de the plate mill tonnage men will not take part in the meeting which is called for 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, a the Benwood city hall. About 150 mer are involved.

At present those known as "run down" men get $1 80 per day, and they will ask for $2. The helpers at the furnaces are also paid $1 80 and will ask for the same increase. The employee work at different jobs and are classified, but they will demand an increase in proportion to that asked for by the 'run downs' and furnace helpers. The highest wages are paid to the "hook-ups," who get $2 a day. Some "hot-bed" men get $1 50 a day, others work at so much per heat, there being seven heats.

The laborers who get $1 25 a day, will likely ask for an increase. About a year ago their wages were fixed at $1 25 a day, having previously been cut to $1 15, and the increase a year ago makes the laborers cautious about asking for another. The men are hopeful of getting their requests acceded to, for the Riverside plate mill is unusually busy now for this time of year.

THE MAYOR'S VEST Gave Him Trouble on the Cars When he Reached for His Pass.

Yesterday on the street cars seems a dull wide featureless blank, compared with Thursday, when the "women folks" held sway, but one lively oasis appeared on the desert of monotony, as His Honor Mayor Butts took his seat in Benwood car, bound for North Wheel ing. The other passengers gazed at the city's chief executive with pride, for lo and behold, he had on a white vest. Then, when sufficient time had passed by, the conductor reached forth his hand for "fare." The mayor put one hand in one pocket looking for his "dead-head" book, and next tried another pocket, and then another. But no pass came to pass, so he ran his hands up and down his seat within smile.

His vest was on inside out!

The conductor laughed, Mayor Butts did likewise, but the passengers saw interesting studies on the other end of the street. His Honor found his pass all right in his vest pocket, and explained by saying that in a hurry he put his "weskit" on inside out. hand for "fare." The mayor put one
